How Being Trauma-Informed Improves Criminal Justice Responses

SAMHSA'S GAINS Center for Behavioral Health and Justice Transformation developed a curriculum to train criminal justice professionals in the prevalence, impact, and appropriate response to trauma in the inmate population. Lenape Valley Foundation's own Cindy Thiers completed the SAMHSA training and will be training criminal justice professionals in Bucks County. The trauma-informed responses detailed in the training are designed to help avoid re-traumatization, decrease recidivism, and promote rehabilitation and recovery in the inmate population.

Glen's Village

Please join the Trauma Informed Care committee for a showing of the documentary, Glen's Village.

Glen's Village is the story of Glen Casey, a West Philadelphia native who overcame a traumatic childhood and went on to attend the University of Pennsylvania.
