

Lenape Valley Foundation sets suicide prevention vigil

As part of its suicide prevention efforts, Lenape Valley Foundation will hold a candlelight vigil at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 13, in the courtyard outside the Bucks County Courthouse, 55 E. Court St., Doylestown.

The candlelight vigil for suicide prevention will memorialize the victims of suicide, offer support for family members and friends touched by suicide and offer hope for the future.

Community members are welcome and encouraged to attend.

The vigil will take place as a follow-up to National Suicide

Prevention Week, which is Sept. 5 to 11, and is an annual campaign in the United States geared toward informing and engaging the general public about suicide prevention and the warning signs associated with suicide.

The campaign aims to reduce the stigma surrounding the topic of suicide and encourages the pursuit of mental-health assistance, while also offering support and resources to those who have attempted suicide.

For over half a century, Lenape Valley Foundation has partnered with residents of Bucks County encountering mental health, substance use, intellectual or developmental challenges, providing services to assist them in the pursuit of their personal aspirations and an enhanced quality of life.

Lenape Valley Foundation is a private, not-for-profit provider of crisis, information and referral, treatment, case management, residential, consultation and psycho-educational services.

For information regarding Lenape Valley Foundation and its services, visit lenapevf.org or call 215-345-5300.

Palestinian human rights advocate to speak

A lovely ranch home on 6.4 private acres with an open concept design and impressive views. Screened porch, deck, in-law suite, Japanese garden, pond, garage, chicken house, 2-story workshop/studio. Close to lakes and major roadways. Haycock Township, PA. $515,000.

 River Valley