Lenape Valley Foundation will mark its 60th anniversary celebration with a dinner from 5:30 to 9 p.m. Oct. 18 at the Aldie Mansion, 85 Old Dublin Pike, Doylestown Township.

Lenape Valley Foundation will mark its 60th anniversary celebration with a dinner from 5:30 to 9 p.m. Oct. 18 at the Aldie Mansion, 85 Old Dublin Pike, Doylestown Township.

The evening will include a cocktail hour with musical entertainment by pianist James Rogala, dinner and an awards ceremony recognizing organizations and individuals that have played an instrumental role in helping Lenape provide care for individuals struggling with mental health, substance use and intellectual or developmental challenges.

Award recipients include the Bucks County Crisis Intervention Team Task Force, Corrine L. Curtis, Doylestown Health and Dr. Edwin R. Knopf. Doylestown Borough Mayor Ron Strouse will serve as the event emcee.

Proceeds will support Bucks County's first and only crisis residential program, the Lodge at Lenape Valley Foundation, which will open this fall on the campus of Lower Bucks Hospital in Bristol Township.

The event is open to the community but reservations are required. Tickets are $150 each and can be purchased at www.lenapevf.org.
