

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Public Invited to a Showing of the Film *Healing Voices

Doylestown, PA, March 27, 2019 – Lenape Valley Foundation’s Trauma Informed Care Committee, in partnership with Delaware Valley University, invites the public to a showing of the film Healing Voices. The showing will be held on Wednesday, May 29 from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm in the Life Sciences Building Auditorium at Delaware Valley University, 700 E. Butler Avenue, Doylestown.

Healing Voices explores the experiences commonly labeled as "psychosis" or "mental illness" through the real-life stories of individuals working to overcome extreme mental states and integrate these experiences into their lives in meaningful ways.

There will be a live discussion about mental illness following the film and refreshments will be served. Free parking will be available in Lot C (access off New Britain Road).

For more than 60 years, Lenape Valley Foundation has partnered with residents of Bucks County encountering mental health, substance use, intellectual or developmental challenges, providing services to assist them in the pursuit of their personal aspirations and an enhanced quality of life. Lenape Valley Foundation is a private, not-for-profit provider of crisis, information and referral, treatment, case management, residential, consultation and psycho-educational services.

The showing is free to the public, but reservations are requested at suzanne.rhodeside@lenapevf.org. For more information, please call 267-893-5280.
